

John Bianculli Music®

The Best in Live & DJ Entertainment

DJ Services and more...

The DJ services we provide can alternate between both "live" and recorded music for your event. It can be a very cost effective way to provide a wide variety of high quality music for all occasions that still infuses the ambience of "live" music in a wide variety of styles and allows for just about any requests to be honored.

We are unique in that we can alternate between "Live" and DJ" music on the fly as needed. Most entertainment providers do either one or the other. We have a 20,000+ song collection. In addition almost any song we do not have in our collection can be downloaded from the Internet on the spot at your event upon request within a matter of a minute or two. We have the best in "state of the art" sound equipment.

We pride ourselves on taking the time before your event to create just the right musical ambience you are looking for. Whether your need is sophisticated background music to full blown dance music we're a great choice! We guarantee your satisfaction.

Song and Artist Lists are available upon request.
